"Fantastico!" What a treat: "Gallop!" in Spanish. For the millions of Hispanic children in the United States (Spanish is the primary language at home for 34 million Americans), and for the millions more children whose parents would like them to learn Spanish as a second language, comes the #1 "New York Times" bestseller, translated as "Al Galope!" With "Al Galope!," "Gallop!" joins other classic children's authors and books such as Dr. Seuss ("Huevos verdes con jamon"), Maurice Sendak ("Donde viven los monstruos"), Margaret Wise Brown ("Buenas noches, luna"), H.A. Rey ("Jorge el Curioso"), and Judith Viorst ("Alexander y el dia terrible, horrible, espantoso, horroroso"). "Al Galope!" captures the pure, universal visual fun of watching animals come to life, with the most energetic, sing-song text: "Puedes galopar como un caballo? "" Cloc-cloc-cloc!"" Puedes correr como un perro? "" Guau-guau-guau!" Whether they speak Spanish fluently or are wanting to learn it, kids will love hearing and repeating the words as the animals swim, fly, leap, swing, gallop, and flutter across the page. "

About the Author

Rufus Butler Seder is an optical genius whose first significant invention was Lifetiles, glass-walled murals that appear to come to life when the viewer walks by. He's installed them at the Smithsonian, SeaWorld, Union Station, and other museums, aquariums, train stations, and ocean liners around the world. Next came Scanimation, and his company EyeThink, Inc., a business that produces a line of toys and gifts using technologies he's invented. Mr. Seder lives in Boston, Massachusetts.
